

Regional Place-Based Training for Housing Counselors

NeighborWorks® America through the NeighborWorks® Center for Homeownership Education and Counseling (NCHEC) and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) are working together to provide training opportunities to all HUD-Approved housing counseling agencies. HUD-Approved housing counseling agency staff and counselors are eligible to receive tuition scholarships and expanded training courses at the NeighborWorks® Training Institute and regional place-based training.

Regional place-based training events will be held in 20 cities throughout the United States through March 2007. Staff and counselors from HUD-Approved housing counseling agencies are eligible to receive a tuition scholarship to attend are regional PBT.
